0' give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north, and from the south. They wondered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

WORDS OF GRATITUDE

During these trying hours, the presence of friends, family and Loved ones have been one of our sustaining elements. Your Prayers have increased our faith. Your words have encouraged our sad, sad hearts. Your presence has given us an arm to lean on. Your food helped us to maintain our strength. The thought of every card, the visits, the phone calls, and the telegrams added a touch of beauty to a setting that was full gloom. By the grace of God and all of you, the burden that seemed So very, very heavy was lightened. We pray that each of you will be showered with God's richest blessings.
